1 Principles and Objectives of the Club

1.1 Primary Objectives

The primary objective of the Club is to provide collaboration, networking, intellectual stimulation and social opportunities, as well as any other pursuit reasonably suited for students studying computer science at the University of Adelaide and other interested people.

1.2 Not for Profit Clause

The assets and income of the Club shall be applied solely in furtherance of its above-mentioned objects and no portion shall be distributed directly or indirectly to the members of the Club except as bona fide compensation for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the Club.

1.3 Status of Constitution

All rules, regulations, requirements and steps outlined by the YouX and the Clubs Constitution take precedence over anything outlined in this constitution.

2 Name

The legal and formal name of the club is “The University of Adelaide Computer Science Club”.

2.1 Trading Names

For the purposes of publicity, publication, or other purposes as approved by the President or his delegate, the name of the Club may be written as “CS Club”. It may also be written as a syntactically valid source code statement or equivalent for any self-hosting computer programming language which calls a zero-parameter callable unit named “club” contained or referenced within a first-class object named “cs”, discarding any returned value. These names need not be capitalised as described.

3 Definitions

Unless a contrary intention is evident, the following definitions apply to this Constitution and all other club documents:

Club means the University of Adelaide Computer Science Club;

University means the University of Adelaide;

Committee means the Committee of the Club;

Executive means the Executive Committee of the Club;

GM means a General Meeting of the Club;

AGM means an Annual General Meeting of the Club;

SGM means a Special General Meeting of the Club;

Academic Day means a weekday defined by the University of Adelaide to be within a semester;

Office means an elected position in the Club provided for in Section 7.1.

Officer means a member who has been elected to an Office.

Executive means the Executive of the Club.

4 Membership

4.1 General Membership

General membership in the Club is open to any current undergraduate or post-graduate student at the University of Adelaide who:

1. Pays the membership fee as determined under Section 5; and
2. Submits to the committee the following information:
 - (a) Full name; and
 - (b) student ID number; and
 - (c) preferred Email Address.

4.2 Associate Membership

Associate membership in the Club is open to any person not a student of the University of Adelaide only if the applicant may satisfy any possible reasonable objections the committee may raise. Associate members must also satisfy the criteria under Section 4.1.

4.3 Honorary Membership

Honorary membership in the Club is open to any person upon whom the Club has conferred. Such a membership may only be conferred by a resolution at a GM.

4.4 Refusal and Revocation of Membership

The committee has the right to refuse or revoke the membership of any potential or current member if the applicant or member has proven detrimental to the interests of the club, violates the Code of Conduct of the University of Adelaide, or is otherwise causing serious issues within the club for either its membership base and/or committee.

4.4.1 Procedure for Refusal or Revocation of Membership

Membership may only be refused or revoked after a passing motion of a two thirds majority during a committee meeting. The person to whom membership is being refused or revoked will be given an opportunity to attend the meeting and present their case to the committee, whether in person, electronically, or in-writing. The committee will make reasonable efforts to hold the meeting during a time in which the person may attend to plead their case. In the event that membership is being refused or revoked due to issues arising out of interpersonal conflict, the other parties seeking the refusal or revocation will also be permitted to attend the committee meeting and present their arguments.

5 Membership Fee

The club's membership fee is determined at each AGM for the following year. The membership fee provides membership until the subsequent AGM. Honorary members of the club are exempt from membership fees as set out in Section 4.3.

6 Termination of Membership

6.1 Ordinary Membership Termination

The committee may suspend any membership for whatever reason if:

- (a) the member is given a written notice of suspension; and
- (b) a Committee Meeting is held to vote on the revocation within 3 weeks of suspension; and
- (c) the member is notified in writing within 48 hours of the conclusion of the committee meeting.

6.2 Suspended Members

During the process as described in Section 6.1:

- (a) Suspended members may not attend club events or otherwise take part in club activities until a resolution is reached; and
- (b) If the committee meetings results in the revocation of a member's membership, their membership is terminated.

6.3 Member's own choice

Members of the club may terminate their own membership by writing to the committee.

6.4 Fee refund

Members who have their membership terminated, whether by their own accord or through a decision of the committee, are no longer affiliated with the club and cannot have their membership fee refunded.

7 The Committee

7.1 Makeup

The committee consists of up to 20 members, unless a number in excess of this is decided by the committee. In order of precedence they are the President, the Vice-President, the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Partnerships and Sponsorships Manager, Other Office Bearing Positions for which the position is defined in Schedule 1, the Major Representative Suite for which the position is defined in Schedule 1, and the number of General Committee members prescribed in Schedule 1.

7.2 Election

A committee is elected to office at the AGM, with the exception of the First Year Representative. The First Year Representative is elected to office as set out in section 17.1. The committee including the First Year Representative holds office until the subsequent AGM.

7.2.1 Turnover

A turnover meeting must be held within one month of any general meeting where a new committee member is elected to train the new committee member(s). This timeframe may be extended if it clashes with exams or major assessment deadlines.

7.3 Duties

The committee acts on behalf of the Club in the general day-to-day running of the Club and must not act to the detriment of the Club's interests.

7.4 Casual Vacancies

The committee has the power to fill any casual vacancies arising from circumstances outlined in Section 10 during its term of office. All members shall be given reasonable ability, time and opportunity to apply for casual vacancies. The ability of the committee to fill casual vacancies shall not be restricted by this constitution.

7.5 Expiration

All offices expire at the AGM, but former officers may re-run and hold office any number of times.

7.6 Committee Meetings

The committee must meet at least once a month during the academic year. The committee will make reasonable efforts to ensure maximal attendance by committee members, including but not limited to:

- (a) Provisions to attend meetings electronically; or
- (b) Partial attendance in order to raise their proposed motions; or
- (c) Sending in a representative upon written notice to and approval by the President and Secretary; or
- (d) Sending in a written summary of their motions, reports, and voting desires for other motions and positions; or
- (e) Polls by the President, whether over Messenger or on voting websites, including but not limited to WhenIsGood and Doodle, to permit committee meetings to be held during times of maximum availability.

7.7 Removal of committee members due to absences

If a committee member fails to attend three committee meetings in a row without providing an apology, being on a leave of absence or having alternative arrangements put in place, the committee member will be immediately removed from their position.

- (a) An attendance will reset the count.
- (b) Apologies will not be counted towards the three absences count.
- (c) Apologies will not reset the count.

7.8 Removal of committee members due to misconduct

- (a) If a committee member has demonstrable interests against the club, or actively works to undermine the club and its interests, they may be removed from their positions subject to a vote of no less than two-thirds of the committee.
- (b) If a committee member is accused of harassment against another committee member, they will be suspended from their position and may be removed after a committee meeting subject to a vote of no less than two-thirds of the committee.

- (i) The accused will not be allowed to attend the committee meeting in person should the victim be present, to allow the victim to safely attend the meeting.
 - (ii) The accused will be allowed to attend electronically, and will be allowed to submit a written statement.
- (c) If a committee member is convicted of violating a University Code of Conduct resulting in their suspension from the University they will be immediately removed from their position as a committee member.
- (d) If a committee member commits a crime resulting in jail time they will be immediately removed from their position as a committee member.
- (e) If a committee member is found to be committing fraudulent activities using the club bank account, they will be immediately suspended from their position as a committee member, and a meeting with YouX will be held to discuss the offence.
 - (i) If the funds are not returned the Club will terminate both their position and their membership.
 - (ii) The committee will pursue all reasonable pathways to have the funds returned, and may seek legal advice in the event that other pathways have been exhausted.
- (f) If a committee member is continually absent from meetings throughout the year, is consistently failing to fulfill their duties or tasks, is causing conflict within the committee or club, or is otherwise proven to be difficult to work with, they may be removed from their position at a committee meeting subject to a two-thirds majority vote.

8 Special Resolutions of the Committee

8.1 Definition

A special resolution is a motion put forth by the committee on a specific matter which is NOT:

- (a) Related to the day-to-day running of the club; or
- (b) already accounted for by constitutional or executive powers.

8.2 Process

A special resolution must be raised during a committee meeting as set out in Section 9, and voted upon as in Section 9.2. A special resolution is required for a matter to be brought to a GM to be decided. For the resolution to take effect, the resolution must be put to vote in a GM as set out in Section 22.

9 Committee Meetings

9.1 Calling a Meeting

A meeting is called by the President or the Vice-President to discuss day-to-day running of the club and any issues for the committee to decide. The meeting must be called at least 1 week in advance; if they are not, committee members may be absent without reason and suffer no consequence as set out in Section 7.7.

9.2 Voting Procedure

- (a) The President has a deliberative vote and in the case of an equality of votes, may exercise a casting vote. This means they effectively have 2 votes, 1 in capacity as member and another in capacity as the chair of the meeting.
- (b) The President chairs all committee and GMs of the Club. In their absence, chair of the meeting will follow in the order of precedence stated in Section 7.1.
- (c) No committee member may delegate his/her voting right in absentia.
- (d) The quorum of a committee meeting is 5 distinct voting members of the committee.
- (e) If a quorum is not present then the executive has general decisive power.

9.3 Minutes

Minutes of all meetings must be kept and they must include:

- (a) The names of the persons that attended that meeting; and
- (b) Discussion points; and
- (c) Decisions of the committee.

9.4 Special Circumstances

Upon receiving a written petition of 3 voting committee members, the President, or in their absence the Vice-President, must call a meeting of the committee within 14 days.

10 Extraordinary Committee Changes

10.1 Cessation of Office

A member of the committee ceases holding their office if:

- (a) The President or Vice-President receives a written notice of resignation from that member; or
- (b) The member is absent, without leave of absence being granted by resolution of the committee, for 3 consecutive meetings of the committee of which the member was notified; or
- (c) Their membership in the club is terminated as set out in Section 6.
- (d) A motion of no-confidence in a committee member's ability to perform their duties is expressed by at least 6 out of 9 possible members, whereby a SGM must be called to vote on the matter of changing the committee.

10.2 Filling a Vacancy

When an office becomes vacant a GM must called to fill the position within 6 weeks unless:

- (a) The AGM is to be held within 8 weeks of the position becoming vacant; or
- (b) There is no academic day within the next 6 weeks. In this instance the GM is to be held within 2 weeks of the next academic day; or
- (c) The office is filled as a casual vacancy as specified in Section 7.4.

The President or in their absence the Vice-President may appoint any volunteering club member to fill the office in the interim.

11 The Executive Body

11.1 Makeup

The executive consists of:

- (a) The President; and
- (b) the Vice-President;
- (c) the Treasurer; and
- (d) the Secretary; and
- (e) the Partnerships and Sponsorship Manager.

11.2 General Power

The executive has general power to make regulations necessary to put into effect this constitution, provided that such regulations are consistent with this constitution and the objectives of the club.

11.3 Maintaining a Committee Composition Schedule

The Executive shall be responsible for maintaining Schedule 1 to this constitution, which shall detail the composition of the committee, including but not limited to the number of positions which exist, the eligibility requirements for each position, and the duties of each position.

11.4 Acting Presidencies

In the event the President is unable to fulfill their duties, the executive has the power to promote, in the order of precedence set out in Section 7.1, a member of the executive to acting President subject to ratification at GM.

11.5 Eligibility to hold positions

Those serving in an executive office should, where possible, have previously served in another position on the committee.

11.6 Working Groups

The executive has the power to appoint working groups from within the membership to perform duties associated with a specific agenda. Such working groups are, at all times, answerable to the executive.

12 The President

The President is elected by the members of the club at each AGM.

12.1 Duties

20.1 Duties

The General Committee are responsible for assisting the executive in running the club. In general they are also responsible for assisting club members with regards to the goals of the club.

20.2 Ability to appoint additional members

The Executive committee may appoint additional general committee members without the need for a general meeting to reflect changing needs of the club adhering to Section 7.1, & must document the total number of positions which exist within Schedule 1.

21 Club Finances

21.1 Bank Account

The club must hold a bank account for the purpose of holding the club's funds.

21.2 Signatories

The signatories of the club's bank account are the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, referred to as the Executive.

21.3 Minimum balance

The committee shall endeavour to maintain a minimum bank balance of $2,000, except where there is an essential need for the spending of this money to run events and essential functions as approved in a committee meeting.

21.4 Authority to access funds

Any one signatory may withdraw funds from the bank account with written approval from the rest of the Executive by any means of communication, such communication must be recorded in the clubs records for auditing purposes. The use of these funds must then be approved by a majority of no less than half of the committee at the subsequent committee meeting or the funds must be returned immediately. All members of the Executive will have authority to view the bank account and challenge unauthorised transactions. Should the Executive fail to authorise unanimously withdrawal of funds a committee meeting must be held before funds can be withdrawn. Upon a successful motion of no less than half of the committee the funds may then be withdrawn.

22 General Meetings

22.1 Purpose

A General Meeting of the club is the ultimate decision-making body of the club and has the power to direct the committee, the executive and the officers of the club. It is reserved for only important decisions which concerns the club as a whole.

22.2 Calling a meeting

A General Meeting is considered “called” as long as the committee have reasonably made efforts to advertise the meeting to its members.

22.3 Timing

A president must call a meeting within 14 days when:

1. The committee directs them to do as such; or
2. They receive a petition calling for a GM from at least 7 club members.

The meeting must be held no sooner than 10 working days after it is called. The meeting must be held not later than 1 calendar month after it is called.

22.4 Conducting a meeting

The General Meeting is directed by the committee regarding whatever reason for which it was convened.

22.4.1 Voting
